MAY 23RD - JUNE 11TH 2017
McAULAY STUDIO, HONG KONG ARTS CENTRE
2 HARBOUR ROAD, WAN CHAI

PETER AND THE WOLF
Tuesday May 23rd, 6.00pm & Saturday May 27th, 7.00pm
Little Peter, whose head is always in the clouds, gets into trouble with his grandparents for refusing to eat his peas and do his homework. But this is the least of his troubles. Soon he is faced with some tough ducks with attitude, a cheeky gang of birds and some seriously sly cats - until he has to finally own up to the boss! That's right, the Big Bad Wolf!
Performed by Group D (actors aged 5 to 7)

THE TWO BROTHERS
Tuesday May 23rd, 8.00pm & Thursday May 25th, 8.00pm
Once upon a time there were two brothers who lived in a cottage with their mother. A perfectly ordinary tale you might think, but you'd be wrong! Based on a Norwegian folk tale, this hilarious and ludicrous story soon has the stage in chaos as Big Peter and his wife Gertrude try to get the better of his brother in this upbeat farce!
Performed by Group Z (actors aged 11 to 12)

THE RELUCTANT DRAGONS
Wednesday May 24th, 6.00pm & Friday May 26th, 6.00pm
Dragons live in caves in the forest! Don't worry though: they're not dangerous! In fact, they're polite, decent and like to read and write poems. The villagers are not convinced though and hire a series of knights to attack the dragons. Will the children be able to change the minds of the villagers and save the dragons before it is too late?
Performed by Group A (actors aged 5 to 7)

THE STOLEN CIRCUS
Wednesday May 24th, 8.00pm & Friday May 26th, 8.00pm
Behind the bright lights and colours of the circus lies a dark mystery! A group of wise cracking detectives must delve into the absurd and surprisingly dangerous world of a big top circus and solve a case filled with suspicious acrobats, wild animals and clowns. A challenge our young cast have excelled at. Will good triumph over evil? Join us to find out!
Performed by Group L (actors aged 8 to 11)

KIP MARLOWE AND THE BROADWAY CAPER
Saturday May 27th, 1.30pm & Thursday June 1st, 8.00pm
Kip Marlowe the 1940's gumshoe detective returns to solve another mystery! This time Kip delves into the world of show business as he attempts to solve a puzzling case backstage at a famous Broadway musical! Will he find the culprits before the curtains rise for the third act?
Performed by Group W (actors aged 8 to 11)

PEGGY THE PINT SIZED PIRATE
Sunday May 28th, 1.30pm
Peggy is the smallest of the Pirates and none of them take her seriously, they don't even think she's a proper pirate. She can't wait to go on the treasure race adventure but isn't chosen as crew. Peggy takes matters into her own hands and embarks on a dangerous mission, with the help of the mermaids, to defeat the sea monster.
Performed by Group WIS2 (actors aged 6 to 7)

STORYBOOK FAME
Sunday May 28th, 4.00pm & Tuesday May 30th, 7.00pm
Ever wondered what would happen if you took all of the famous storybook characters and put them in a reality TV show? The good take on the bad in a series of challenges, all in an effort to gain storybook fame! Who will win the ultimate prize of being the most important storybook character of all time? Stay tuned, and find out.
Performed by Group V2 (actors aged 6 to 7)

THE VOYAGE TO ATLANTIS
Sunday May 28th, 7.00pm & Wednesday May 31st, 8.00pm
The iconic characters of Victorian London band together to go on a wild adventure to the lost city of Atlantis! Join Oliver Twist, the Artful Dodger, the Baker Street Irregulars, Wendy, Alice and many others as they deal with betrayal, swordplay and magic!
Performed by Group C1 (actors aged 7 to 10)

TOWN MICE AND COUNTRY MICE
Tuesday May 30th, 1.30pm
In true reality TV style two different families get to experience life in another man's shoes, well another mouse's shoes. Life in the county is a little different for the Town Mice, and the Country Mice finds shopping, amongst other things, a strange lifestyle choice. Is it all worth it just for some good TV?
Performed by Group K (actors aged 6 to 7)

JACK AND THE FLYING SHIP
Thursday June 1st, 6.00pm & Saturday June 3rd, 11.00am
Most of us are familiar with Jack and the Beanstalk, but did you know that Jack stars in many other tales? In this story, Jack must rescue a princess from an evil witch. Along the way he meets an old magic man that gives him a flying ship. He starts to collect travellers, but will they be able to defeat the witch?
Performed by Group I (actors aged 6 to 7)

THE MISADVENTURES OF THE MASK
Friday June 2nd, 8.00pm & Wednesday June 7th, 8.00pm
Stanley Ipkiss is a loser. Well, he's not, but that's what his classmates think, especially when new girl Tina arrives and poor Stanley can't pluck up the courage to speak to her let alone ask her out. But all that changes when a strange mask transforms him from an average high-schooler to a green faced trickster who's a non-stop riot!
Performed by Group WIS3 (actors aged 8 to 11)

STONE SOUP
Saturday June 3rd, 7.00pm
Stone Soup is a Grimm Brothers' tale where strangers come to town to ask for food. None of the villagers give them anything, so they start to make their own soup with a stone. Slowly the villagers become interested in what the strangers are doing and start to bring ingredients to add to the delicious soup.
Performed by Group BH1 (actors aged 6 to 7)

TREASURE ISLAND
Sunday June 4th, 7.00pm & Friday June 9th, 8.00pm
When pirate Billy Bones arrives at The Admiral Benbow, he entrusts Jim Hawkins with a secret treasure map and the promise of adventure. Is the map real? Who is the mysterious Blind Pew and is the one-legged Long John Silver all that he says he is? Find out as we present the greatest pirate adventure ever told!
Performed by Group M2 (actors aged 8 to 11)

THE GRAND HIGH WITCH
Tuesday June 6th, 8.00pm & Thursday June 8th, 8.00pm
In fairy tales witches always wear silly black hats and ride broomsticks. But this is not a fairy tale. This is about real witches. Real witches dress in ordinary clothes, look like ordinary women, live in ordinary houses and work in ordinary jobs. That is why they are so hard to catch, but someone has to, and that somebody might be you!
Performed by Group S (actors aged 8 to 11)

THE UGLY DUCKLING
Wednesday June 7th, 6.00pm & Saturday June 10th, 1.30pm
When a strange egg appears in Mother Duck's nest, she decides to sit on it anyway. When it hatches, the strangest and ugliest duckling appears. While his siblings taunt him, Mother Duck insists he is a duckling. Fed up with the jeers, he sets out to find his true identity and what he discovers is more wonderful than he every expected!
Performed by Group O (actors aged 5 to 6)

A HONG KONG STORY
Saturday June 10th, 4.00pm & Sunday June 11th, 7.00pm
Join us in this music and dance story that is loosely based on West Side Story, but set in Hong Kong! This modern tale sets the Hong Kong Side against the Kowloon Side in dance-offs and sing-a-longs in a friendly rivalry, until the New Territories Side joins in to really mix things up!
Performed by Group M4 (actors aged 6 to 7)

THE HARE AND THE TORTOISE
Sunday June 11th, 4.00pm
The classic fable of The Hare and the Tortoise is reimagined as a rivalry between two students at school. The bookish Tommy Tortoise and the charming Harriet Hare. The entire school is split down the middle as the two begin to prepare for the big race on an epic sports day.
Performed by Group DB2 (actors aged 6 to 7)

THE JUNGLE MIX UP*
Thursday May 25th - Saturday June 10th
"Does your mum have big fluttery wings or a long grey trunk? Let's see if we can find her..." When two little mischievous monkeys get separated from their mother they enlist the help of some butterflies to help. But the butterflies aren't very smart or very helpful. Will they have to search through every animal in the jungle before they are finally able to find her?
This fabulous tale will be retold by our Faust groups aged 4 to 5. When purchasing tickets, please check carefully to select the correct Faust group's performance.

JUNE 2ND - 4TH 2017
Y STUDIO, YOUTH SQUARE
238 CHAI WAN ROAD, CHAI WAN

ONCE UPON A TALK SHOW
Friday June 2nd, 6.00pm
Do you ever wonder what happened to the fairy tale characters after a whirlwind of fame and glamour? It's time to see if being in a storybook is all its cracked up to be. Appearing on the most watched talk show in the Kingdom of Far Far Away, will these memorable characters keep their cool or will it turn into a fairy tale fiasco!
Performed by Group H & R (actors aged 8 to 11)

CYRANO DE BERGERAC
Friday June 2nd, 8.00pm
Swashbuckling Cyrano De Bergerac is a man with an impressively large nose, a scathing wit and incomparable fencing skills. His one weakness is his unrequited crush on Roxanne, leading to a series of comic misunderstandings, fast paced action and high drama, beautifully presented by the talented Group T.
Performed by Group T (actors aged 13 to 16)

ANYTHING YOU SAY, YOUR MAJESTY!
Saturday June 3rd, 11.00am
Surely a Queen looking for a new high profile image and appearance in the celebrity clad "Hi, there!" magazine, can do no better than featuring in both a Coronation and a Royal Wedding at the same time? But with the absence of a crown and a suitable groom it isn't going to be that straight forward!
Performed by Group X (actors aged 8 to 10)

A FILM NOIR FAIRY TALE
Saturday June 3rd, 2.00pm
We're all familiar with traditional fairy tales but look a little closer and you'll find that many of these tales leave a long list of unsolved fairy tale crimes! Who will solve them? Why Jack and Jill of course, Fable City's top detectives! Join us as we find the answer to many of these puzzling events.
Performed by Group J (actors aged 7 to 10)

FAIRYTALE COURTROOM
Saturday June 3rd, 5.00pm
What would happen if two of the most infamous fairy tale villains, the Big Bad Wolf and the Wicked Witch, were brought to trial? Hear the personal accounts of what happened, from the victims themselves as the trial unfolds. Ultimately the audience is the jury, so what will be your verdict?
Performed by Group C2 (actors aged 11 to 14)

PRIDE AND PREJUDICE AND POPULARITY
Saturday June 3rd, 8.00pm
Liz Bennet is tired of the popularity game at Austen High School. Everybody is obsessed with who is dating who and how popular they are. Liz prefers to dive into a good book and plan for college. All seems to be going well until a couple of new students arrive and shatter the school hierarchy - and alter Liz's world view forever.
Performed by Group N (actors aged 12 to 16)

THE CLOCKWORK PRINCE OF OZ
Sunday June 4th, 11.00am
Tick tock, tick tock, time is running out in Oz! The evil Clockwork Prince plans to go back in time and stop Dorothy and friends from reaching the Emerald City and destroy the peace they established. It is up to Dorothy, Scarecrow, Lion, Tin Man and friends to stop the Clockwork Prince and his minions in a pulse pounding race against time.
Performed by Group F (actors aged 9 to 12)

MOBILE PHONE SHOW
Sunday June 4th, 2.00pm
How much do you use your mobile phone? On the MTR, check, on the escalator, check, on the toilet, check - we've become so reliant on technology that we feel anxious without it. From comedy sketches to serious true to life stories, Mobile Phone Show delves into the murky depths of this technology and asks where it will take us in the future.
Performed by Group DB4 (actors aged 12 to 16)

BUGSY MALONE
Sunday June 4th, 5.00pm
In a city populated only by children, two gangs are at the peak of their rivalry. Dandy Dan has the upper hand over Fat Sam and his crooks. Bugsy is thrust into the limelight when he becomes Fat Sam's last chance of survival, but all Bugsy really wants is a quiet life. That just isn't on the cards for our hero!
Performed by Group DB3 (actors aged 8 to 11)

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE ANCIENT OLYMPIC GAMES
Sunday June 4th, 8.00pm
Back in a time where everyone wore togas and played around in the sun, a little bit more was happening than you may have thought! Join Group E as they bring to life history and mythology in this inspirational and dramatic presentation of the original Olympic Games.
Performed by Group E (actors aged 12 to 16)

All shows are performed by the young actors of Faust International Limited. For more information about Faust drama workshops please call us on 2547 9114, email Info@FaustWorld.com or visit our website www.FaustWorld.com.
The Faust Festival is designed as an opportunity for our talented actors to perform on stage, and for many, it is the culmination of the year's learning at Faust. Your ticket purchase helps make the Festival possible. Thank you for your support.
