This superb dramatisation of Peter & the Wolf, accompanied by movement, dialogue and Sergey Prokofiev's musical score, provides an enthralling performance for young people. Come and watch this tale of a brave young boy who takes it upon himself to go out hunting for a dangerous wolf. Peter fails to heed the words of warning from his wise old grandfather, and without the slightest fear ventures forward with a bird, a duck, and a cat. Smart and quick witted, our young hero involves his new friends to help capture the wolf and make sure no other animals fall prey.

"The children in one class did a reflection on the show today and they all wanted to congratulate you for the different dramatic effects and your use of props. We all loved the way you brought humour into the story".
